The Wyoming Legislature having failed to elect a United States Senator, Governor Osborne will appoint one. He will be a Democrat.

The news from Washington indicates an extra session of the 53d Congress, early in March. This will make the Washington news highly interesting.

The Woman's Recorder says the legislature had better leave crinoline alone. Certain members should have taken that advice long ago.—Toledo News.

The fellows who were so anxious to annex the kingdom of the late Queen Lili, are not so hilarious now. A great many intelligent Americans want first to know what we are about to get.

Mr. CLEVELAND has notified the committee of arrangements in Washington that he desires to ride in the carriage with President Harrison, when they go down Pennsylvania avenue, from the White House, to swap titles inauguration day.

EX QUEEN LILIOKALANI (no matter how you pronounce it) of the ex-cannibals of the Sandwich Islands is said to be awfully and at the downward turn of her queenly affairs. A royal flush probably adds additional lustre to the saffron hue of her immense cheek.

A CALLOUS realistic describes the décolleté waist as a garment lined with pleuro-pneumonia and trimmed with rheumatic congestion. Something vital in this description. This may account for the fact that so many very thin women, who can't afford the style, seldom have colds or the rheumatic congestion.

How the world does move. We don't hardly realize it. The Democrats of Ashtabula, blighted Ashtabula, in the town of Ashtabula and in the county of Ashtabula, are about to start a daily paper. And Democrats have organized a company of home talent and home pluck of $10,000 to start the enterprise.

If our Ohio militia desire to go to the World's Fair, every individual member must go in a squad by himself. The Ohio Legislature will appropriate no money to send the militia as an organized body. This Legislature proposes, if there is to be any dress parade business, to absorb the substance of it for the members thereof.

'Tis but a step from glory to the workhouse; especially for a Republican official in Toledo. Yesterday Judge Lemon sentenced Street Commissioner Bower of Toledo to thirty days in the workhouse and to pay a fine of $200, for carrying dead men on his pay roll. He seems to have grabbed about $2,000 in this way. We hope this style will now become unpopular in the Maumee country.

The veteran journalist, John M. Webb, aged 65 years, died suddenly of heart disease in Youngstown, Tuesday night. He was one of the oldest, ablest and best known Democratic editors in Eastern Ohio. He was president of the Vindicator Printing Company. He was the founder of the Columbus Dispatch. Forty-two years ago he went to Youngstown and has since made that city his home. He was one of the editors of this News, and later he purchased an interest in the Vindicator, remaining as editor until the organization of it into a stock company, when he was elected president. A good man, a strong man, and a staunch and true Democrat has gone to his reward.

This 23d day of February is Washington's birthday. It was George Washington who commanded our Continental army, and who was the first President of the U. S. He was born in Washington Parish, Westmoreland county, Virginia, Feb. 22, 1732. A great many books have been written about Geo. Washington, and he is generally regarded as an ideal character. More towns have been named after him than any other man that ever lived on this side of the Atlantic. He first located our National Capital, in the wild woods on the north bank of the Potomac, but he died the year before it was made the official home of the President. There is a town of Washington in every state in the Union, which is all the rules of the postoffice department will allow, and a new State has just been named for him. It may seem strange however, that in the city of Washington, that George first laid out and which bears his name there are more boats, statues and equestrian figures to James A. Garfield than to George Washington. There is nothing fresh or new to be said about Washington, except, perhaps, that during the last years of his second Presidential term, he was the most abused man in America, and after he died, he was the first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen. On this the 161st anniversary of his birth, we keep his memory green.

How we apples swim. The Democrats, on the 61st ballot, elected William N. Roach, a solid Democrat, United States Senator for North Dakota. And yet Dakota was cut in two by the Republicans, and made into two States, in order to pull in four Republican United States Senators. And now the Democrats have the Senate and North Dakota has helped to make a Democratic Senate.

WALTER Q. GRESHAM is a unique figure in American politics. He is the first and only man in the history of the country to be talked of for candidate for the Presidency by three conflicting parties in the same campaign and then be bidden for first place under a President, elected by a party antagonistic to his own. To attain such distinction requires "a man of parts," and Judge Gresham is the one.—Toledo Saturday Record.

THE SLENDER WOMAN HAS THE ADVANTAGE.

From a Fashion Journal.

Again the tall, slender woman is smiled upon by the mistress of fashion. The tendency in the style of frocks is toward widths and the slender woman smiles serenely as she dons wider skirts and voluminous sleeves. But the little plump woman shivers when she thinks of how hopelessly dowdy she is to be if she wants to wear fashionable garments.

THE LEADER DOES NOT PREFER HARTER.

Congressman M. D. Harter evidently realizes what it would mean to run for Governor of Ohio this fall against McKinley, and expresses himself as not hankering after another campaign of the same laborious kind as that of last fall, "only more so."—Cleveland Leader.

It is probably true that Mr. Harter is not anxious to be a candidate, but this anxiety is not on account of the labor involved in the canvass. Mr. Harter has been a hard worker all his life; and now hard work has become a matter of entertainment and recreation to him. Hence, he is not afraid of the work involved in the canvass. Neither is he in doubt about the result. All the indications are that the Democrats will carry Ohio this year.

The only doubt Mr. Harter has is whether he wants to be Governor. He is well equipped for his present high trust. In framing a new tariff there is no man in Congress, of either party, who has a more thorough knowledge of the business needs of the country than Mr. Harter.

That he would make an excellent Governor goes without saying; but that he can do himself more lasting honor and his countrymen a more valuable service in his present position we sincerely believe.

There is another consideration: Mr. Harter is now representing a district largely Republican, and his immediate constituents would not consent to his retirement to accept the purely ornamental office of Governor—an office that has not even the veto; and the duties of which are largely detail duties, such as signing commissions for county officers and notaries public; and making non-partisan orations at pudder picnics, Sunday school conventions and county fairs. We happen to know that Gov. McKinley would give a year's salary and other valuable considerations if he had Dr. Kirt's certificate in his pocket, as the coming Congressman for this district. Not a day has passed, since the Governor landed in Columbus with his trunk, that he has not sighed for a lay-back seat in the House, where he could look upward into the great House gallery and see the admiring throngs, of both sexes, gaze steadfastly upon his Napoleonic face and Chesterfieldian pose.

Mr. Harter is now a central figure in the lower House, where McKinley won his fame. His best friends think he is admirably located.

However, if Mr. Harter concludes to become a candidate for Governor, the Democrats of the county of his birth and boyhood will be for him to a man.

THE LADIES CAN STILL WEAR CRINO. LINE.

NORTH INDEPENDENT, Feb. 21, 1893.

EDITOR NEWS DEMOCRAT: Dear Sir—Will you please decide the following question?

A bill that the State of Ohio (General Assembly) has passed a law this winter to prevent the wearing of hoops (crinolines) by the ladies.

It bids that the Legislature did not pass any such law. Please decide and oblige.

Yours Truly, J. L. P. S. A says that he saw the statement in the DEMOCRAT.

COMMENTS BY DEMOCRAT.

Our Ohio legislature has not yet passed this law. Our judgment is that they will not pass any such law. Crinoline is conceded to be female attire and it would be contrary to the spirit of our free institutions for our Ohio legislature to designate by law the kind of feminine apparel that a woman shall wear, or say what she shall not wear. We already have a law that women shall not wear male attire, and a law that males shall not wear female attire, which is as far as the constitution will allow the law makers to regulate the styles. If the legislature should pass a law prohibiting women from wearing either corsets, crinolines or crimps, it is highly probable that our courts would hold such a law unconstitutional, and contrary to the guarantees vouchsafed to every citizen in our Ohio Bill of Rights. See Art. VIII, sections 4 and 5, which read as follows:

Sec. 4. Private property shall ever be held inviolate, but always subservient to the public welfare, provided a compensation in money be made to the owner. It will be conceded without argument that crinoline is private property, and that any law that failed to provide compensation to the owner, if such property is condemned, would be clearly against the Bill of Rights. And if fashion should prescribe crinoline, the provision in the Bill of Rights requiring compensation to the owner, would swamp our State treasury. Again, the power to condemn crinoline is doubtful. Read Art. VIII, Sec. 5, of our Bill of Rights.

Sec. 5.—The people shall be secure in their persons, homes, papers and possessions from unwarrantable searches and seizures, etc.

It is clear, that under this section, no searches for crinoline can legally take place. Hence we say, both as a lawyer and a journalist, that the Ohio Legislature can pass no anti-crinoline law that will stand the test of the courts. Our Bill of Rights is clear on all the points involved.

Now, as to the statement that the NEWS-DEMOCRAT printed an item, that an anti-crinoline law had passed the Ohio Legislature, this is error. We only mentioned the introduction of a bill to prohibit crinoline.

BAD STATE OF AFFAIRS IN COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

We get news, that appears to be reliable, that justice is not meted out with an even hand in Columbiana county. It appears that Democrats fail to get justice.

This is a bad state of affairs in a community that boasts of a superior order of intelligence and morality.

We have two cases now before us, that are full of loud talk on this subject, and they will attract wide attention.

Quite recently a Republican paper in East Liverpool, issued a vile slander on Dr. Geo. P. Kirt, our Congressman-elect. When Congressman-elect Kirt attempted to indict his traducers for criminal libel the Grand Jury, made up mostly of Republicans, ignored the case entirely.

But when the East Liverpool Crisis, (a Democratic party), printed an article, without malice or wrong intent, of two runaway boys, who were said to be involved in trouble with a young girl in Wellsville, an information was filed before the Republican Probate Judge of Columbiana county, and no opportunity was given the editor of the Crisis to have the Grand Jury, (which was then in session) investigate the case. And a trial is demanded immediately, without giving the editor of the Crisis time to prepare his case or hunt up his evidence. Fair minded men, everywhere of all parties, will condemn this kind of business.

A CYCLONE OF SCANDALS

And still the atmosphere of the Present State Administration is Not Clarified—Legislature Actions Discussed—Is Representative Rowlen Sick?

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE DEMOCRAT.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 21, 1893.—A record of the scandals of the present Republican administration is startling. The administration was hardly four months old when a female pupil at the Blind Asylum was discovered to be in a delicate condition and was sent home where she has since become a mother. An attack of the institution was suspected of being the cause of her misfortune, but was never brought to justice.

Chaplain Triplet of the penitentiary was the next man to fall, and his disgraceful leave taking from his holy office is well remembered. A woman was in this case.

After a year of bickering and quarrelling Adjutant General Peacock was compelled to tender his resignation and an affair with a woman was made the principal excuse.

Now the exposure at the penitentiary adds another chapter. A female prisoner is soon to increase the population of the prison and two matrons of the female department have been dismissed under a cloud.

On top of these are charges of corruption, bribe taking, seeking and soliciting in the Legislature.

The question is where is all this to end. If it keeps up during the present year the Democrats will find things in a sorry plight when they assume charge next November.

HALE AND THE HOSPITAL.

Representative Hale of Summit Co., came to the front yesterday afternoon with a bill of local interest to Akron. It amends section 3240 of the Revised Statutes by adding the appended words: "Provided further that corporations organized for the purpose of establishing, maintaining and managing hospitals and dispensaries for the reception, care and medical or surgical treatment of sick, injured or disabled persons persons may elect such number of trustees, not less than three, as may be provided in the rules and regulations governing such corporations and such rules and regulations may provide for the time and manner of electing such trustees, and for the length of time such trustees shall hold their offices."

In effect the foregoing simply provides that Trustees of the New Akron hospital may be selected for three years instead of one year.

NO POOR IN PERRY TOWNSHIP.

Hon. John Thomas, the rubicund member from Stark county, dropped labor legislation long enough to introduce "A local bill." This bill permits the trustees of Perry township, Stark county, to transfer $6,000 from the poor fund to the road fund. The bill passed under suspension. Perry township must be a good place to live. The poor do not seem to be always with them, therefore the road fund is to take in the six thousand dollars belonging to the poor, who are not there.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

A Notable Event at Home of a Prominent Plain Township Citizen.

A party consisting of about sixty relatives and friends met at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Austine, in Plain township, on Thursday, Feb. 16, to remind the aged couple that it was the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Austine have outlived the allotted time for man, of three score years and ten, nevertheless they are hale and hearty and have good prospects of life for many years to come. Mr. Austine has one brother and two sisters residing in Stark county, Pa., and one sister, Mrs. Hake of Canton, (mother of George Hake), who was the only person present on this occasion that was present at the marriage, except the two contracting parties. Mrs. Austine has two brothers living in Kansas who have reached an old age also. The Austine family is very remarkable in many respects.

The Austine family originally came from the "Vaterland," Great-grandfather Chas. Yon Austine was born in Wurtemberg, Germany. When but a young man he came to this country and settled in York county, Pa. His occupation was that of farming. The family of children numbered nineteen. Both himself and his faithful wife, a great-grandmother died at the age of about seventy years. Grandfather Simon Austine was born Oct. 30, 1763, in York county, Pa. To him and his good wife were born thirteen children. He brought his age to 85 years, and died 15 days. Grandmother's age was 77 years and 14 days. In his time he was a prominent man. His occupation was that of farming, carrying on other interests besides, living between the two congregations which constituted a charge. His home naturally had a reputation for hospitality. Although his education was limited, his natural good judgment commended him to the confidence of the people, and he was elected a member of the legislature. Father George Austine was born Sept. 4, 1792, in York county, Pa. He reared a family of eight children. He never had any experience of a funeral until the death of his dear wife. His occupation was that of farming. He also owned a fulling mill. His connection with township affairs was well known and the matter of setting up estates was frequently entrusted to him. He died at the age of 85 years, 6 months and 18 days. Mother Catherine Austine, (nee Ehrhart) died at the age of 65 years, 4 months and 12 days, leaving father a widower. She was a devoted religious life they all belonged to the Lutheran denomination. And in politics, belonged to the Democratic party.

Grandfather Jacob Landis and his wife Elizabeth, came from Lancaster county and settled in York county, Pa. Father Jacob and Mother Susanna Landis were both born in York county. They were farmers. In matters of Christian faith they belonged to the York Dunkards. Their union was blessed with four children. Father Landis died at the age of 58 years, 9 months, 16 days. Mother Landis died aged 81 years and 2 months.

John E. Austine was born in York county, Pa., March 30, 1819. Catherine Austine (nee Landis) was born in York county, Pa., March 28, 1824; they were married on the 10th of February, 1849. To them were born twelve children, eight of which are still living: H. L. Austine resides in Denio, Neb.; George, Sophia, Ellen, Malinda, and Maria, all of whom reside in Stark county, and were present on this occasion. Dr. J. E. Austine, the oldest son, was born in York county, Pa., and was twenty-eight, nineteen of which are still living.

After Austine united with the Lutheran church in his youth, and Mother Austine did likewise some years after their marriage. Farming has been his principal occupation. He held county and township offices; that of commissioner from 1863 '66, and in 1887 moved to Ohio in the spring of 1888 to the present home, and since 1870 has lived a retired life. Father and Mother Austine have held the eastern and the best wishes of their neighbors since they lived in Ohio. The Rev. J. A. P. is pastor of the Reformed church of New Berlin and also of the Cairo church, read a scripture lesson from the 107 psalm and delivered a very able and interesting address for the occasion. Mr. Austine's children prepared an excellent dinner. The presents were not very numerous, but some very valuable ones were presented by the children and neighbors. A very fine gilt edged cake was brought from Kansas by their son Henry, which attracted the attention of everyone there for its beauty in spite of the great distance that it was brought. The guests left at a late hour, wishing the aged couple many years of happy life together.

The Amount of Gov. McKinley's Endorsements.

YOUNGSTOWN, Feb. 21.—It is stated on good authority that the amount of paper sold bearing the endorsement of Governor McKinley would reach $85,000, instead of $50,000 to $55,000 as was stated yesterday. While the Governor was here he received a message from a friend in New York which read: "Draw on me for any amount up to $250,000. Do not hesitate to accept the offer. I make it in good faith, and will be glad to help you."

Another Editor Favored With a New Libel Suit.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Feb. 21.—J. C. Deidrich, publisher of the Daily Crisis, has been summoned to answer a charge of criminal libel. The complainant is a young lady of Wellsville, O., concerning whom the Crisis published an article reflecting on her reputation.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous membrane, such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Halls Catarrh Cure, manufactured by P. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Halls Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and is made in Toledo, Ohio by P. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c per bottle.
